EMBODIMENT

~ LIVING THE PRACTICES ~

"The work that a Sufi considers a Sacred Task has nothing to do with any particular creed, nor has it to do with any particular religion. It is only this simple thing: To be in rhythm [and harmony] with Life's conditions and to be in tune with the Infinite."
- Inayat Khan

Embodiment: You!

"We must accept that no matter the shore before us, the swell and toss of the sea never ends. When brought to the crest of a swell, we can see as far as eternity and the soul has its perspective, but when in the belly of those waves, we are, each of us, for the moment, lost. The life of the soul on earth has us bobbing on a raft of flesh in and out of view of eternity, and the work of the inner pilgrim is to keep eternity in our hearts and mind's eye when dropped in the belly of our days."

- Mark Nepo
